SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

Hereafter positions on the LAW JOURNAL will be allotted by the Faculty according to their judgment of the qualifications of the different men in the School. The Alumni Weekly states that these positions will be given to honor men. It is proper to remark that no such unqualified rule has been promulgated. The Secretary of the Law School has informed us that the exact decision of the Faculty was that their selections would be based chiefly on scholarship and literary capacity. Evidently the new method will tend both to better work in the School and on the part of members of the board in their productions for the JOURNAL.

'66 LL.D.—Rome G. Brown, Chairman of the Bar Association Committee to Oppose Judicial Recall, has ordered copies of "The Judiciary and The People," by the Hon. Frederick N. Judson, '66, LL.D., published by the Yale University Press, to be sent to each member of his committee. In ordering them, he said of the book; "The author has covered the subject historically, and leads up inevitably to the conclusion that Judicial Recall is a dangerous fallacy repugnant to our system of government. It is the most illuminating discussion which I have read. Mr. Judson's logic is unanswerable. He writes with perspicuity and handles the question so ably from the viewpoint of both the lawyer and the layman, that his conclusive argument will be read understandingly and sympathetically by every intelligent reader."
